

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
NORTH SALEM HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Article I

The name of the society shall be the NORTH SALEM HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Article II

The purpose of the society shall be to bring together those people interested in history, particularly in the history of North Salem and the regions around it. Understanding of the history of our community is basic to our democratic way of life, gives a better understanding of our state and nation, and promotes a better appreciation of our American heritage.

The society's major function will be to discover and collect any material which may help to establish or illustrate the history of the area; its exploration, settlement, development, and activities in peace or war; its progress in population, wealth, education, arts, science, invention, agriculture, manufacture, trade and transportation. It will collect printed material such as histories, genealogies, biographies, descriptions, gazetteers, directories, newspapers, pamphlets, catalogues, circulars, handbills, programs and posters; manuscript material such as letters, diaries, journals, memoranda, reminiscences, rosters, service records, account books, charts, surveys, old deeds and field books; museum material such as pictures, photographs, paintings, portraits, scenes, aboriginal relics; and material objects illustrative of life, conditions, events, and activities of the past and the present.

The society will provide for the preservation of such material and for its accessibility, as far as feasible, to all who wish to examine or study it, to cooperate with the officials in insuring the preservation and accessibility of records and archives of the county, its cities, towns, villages and institutions, and to undertake the preservation of historic buildings, monuments and markets.

The society will disseminate historical information and arouse interest in the past by publishing historical material in newspapers or otherwise; by holding meetings with pageants, addresses, lectures, papers and discussion; by marking historic building sites and trails; and by using the media of radio and television to awaken public interest.

The society will cooperate with the state and county historical societies to collect and preserve materials of state-wide significance so that these materials can be made available to scholars and students.

Article III

MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall be of five classes:

1. Member [individual or family] - any person interested in the purposes of the society shall be eligible.
2. Institutional Member - any organization, school board, or library interested in the history of North Salem and the area around it shall be eligible.
3. Contributing and Sustaining Member - a person or group or firm offering special support to the objectives shall be eligible.
4. Honorary Member - honorary membership may be conferred upon any person whose activities have contributed to the objectives of the society. Honorary members shall be elected by a three-fourths vote of the membership at an annual meeting upon nomination by the board of trustees.
5. Life members

Article IV

ANNUAL MEETINGS

The annual meeting shall be held during the month of October.

Article V

OFFICERS AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. The officers shall be a president, vice president, executive secretary, recording secretary, corresponding secretary, membership secretary, and treasurer, who shall be elected for a term of one year each.

Section 2. The officers and trustees of the Society will be elected by the members present at each annual meeting, and they shall be the governing body of the Society.

Section 3. There shall be fifteen elected trustees, serving three year terms. The elected trustees shall be divided into three classes, so that five shall be elected at each annual meeting.

Section 4. Any elected officer who is not an elected trustee will automatically become an additional trustee during his term of office.

Section 5. The immediate retiring past president, if not an elected trustee, shall remain an additional trustee for a period of one year after completion of his term of office as president.

Section 6. The holders of the following offices in the Town of North Salem shall be ex-officio members of the Board of Trustees:

Town Historian
President, North Salem Improvement Society
Attorney for the Historical Society (as elected by the Board of Trustees)
Directing Librarian, North Salem Free Library
Librarian, North Salem School Library
A member of the North Salem School District Faculty, to be designated by the Superintendent, North Salem Schools

Each ex-officio trustee may propose a substitute from the same organization, who upon ratification by the Board of Trustees would serve at the discretion of the trustees for the balance of the year.

Article VI

ELECTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. All officers and trustees shall be elected by a plurality of votes cast at the annual meeting.

Section 2. Not less than two months prior to the annual meeting, the executive secretary of the Society shall send to each member of the Society a notice of vacancies to be filled at the annual meeting, and appointing the Nominating Committee. Members in good standing wishing to propose members in good standing for consideration by the Nominating Committee must do so no later than one month prior to the Annual Meeting.

Section 3. The Nominating Committee will evaluate proposed nomination and submit a slate of Officers and Trustees to the members present at the Annual Meeting. At that time, additional nominations may be made from the floor.

Section 4. A person who has been elected to the board of trustees for two consecutive terms, or elected as president or vice president for three consecutive terms, shall not be nominated to the same office unless one year elapses between the end of his last term and the beginning of the term for which he is nominated.

Section 5. Officers and Trustees shall take office at the close of the Annual Meeting at which they have been elected, and serve until their successors have been duly elected. In the event of resignation or incapacity of any officer or trustee, the vacancy may be filled by a vote of the Board of Trustees, for the time remaining until the next Annual Meeting.

Article VII

In the event of dissolution of the Society, its assets remaining after the payment of its legal obligations shall be distributed to such organization or organizations qualified under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (as amended) as the board of trustees shall determine.

Article VIII

This constitution may be amended at any membership meeting by a two-thirds vote of those voting. All proposed amendments shall be submitted in writing.
